

OXEN TEAMS AND WAGONS HAULED SUPPLIES IN AND PRODUCE OUT OF THE YOUNG VILLAGE OF HATTIESBURG. Drivers, teams, and wagons parked and camped in a long-leaf yellow pine forest on Main Street where today's Masonic Temple stands. Cotton, wool, beeswax and cow hides were shipped out.