

BRICKS WERE DRIED BY WOOD FIRES IN UPDRAFT KILNS AT RIVERSIDE. The clay used to make the bricks was found near by. After fire destroyed 26 business houses in 1893, downtown stores were rebuilt with brick and stone. Bricks were used to pave early streets. LOOK FOR old bricks marked "RIVERSIDE".